Reviews of Infectious Diseases

Volume 4 • September-October 1982 • Number 5

Contents

Report on the International Conference on the Eradication of Infectious Diseases. Can Infectious Diseases Be Eradicated?

Participants ................................................................. 912
Foreword. SIR CHARLES STUART-HARRIS ................................................................. 913
Introduction. DEWITT STETTEN, JR. ................................................................. 915

A Successful Eradication Campaign

The Global Eradication of Smallpox. FRANK FENNER ................................................................. 916
How Should We Assess the Importance of an Infection? Discussion .................................................. 931

Potential Candidates for Eradication

World Eradication of Measles. ALAN R. HINMAN ................................................................. 933
Eradication of Poliomyelitis in the United States. NEAL NATHANSON ................................................................. 940
Schistosomiasis: Eradication or Control? G. THOMAS STRICKLAND ................................................................. 951
The Present Impossibility of Eradicating the Omnipresent Worm. KENNETH S. WARREN ................................................................. 955
Eradication, Elimination, and Control: Which Disease Next? Discussion .................................................. 966

Vaccine-Related Issues. Discussion ................................................................. 972
Cost-Benefit Analysis. Discussion ................................................................. 978
Conclusions and Recommendations ................................................................. 984

Review Articles

Epidemiology of Malaria in Malaysia. K. M. MAQSUDUR RAHMAN ................................................................. 985
Epidemic Hemorrhagic Fever Revisited. MYRON S. COHEN ................................................................. 992
Persistent Viral Infections: A Collection of Reviews

Introduction. ALICE S. HUANG ................................................................. 998
Retroviruses and Cancer. HARRIET LATHAM ROBINSON ................................................................. 1015
Persistent Infection of Humans with Hepatitis B Virus: Mechanisms and Consequences. DONALD GANEM ................................................................. 1026
Epstein-Barr Virus: A Human Pathogen Inducing Lymphoproliferation in Vivo and in Vitro. BILL SUGDEN ................................................................. 1048

Classics in Infectious Diseases

The Presence of Heterophile Antibodies in Infectious Mononucleosis. JOHN R. PAUL and W. W. BUNNELL ................................................................. 1062
Reviews of Infectious Diseases publishes its Statement of Editorial Policy and Instructions to Authors in the first issue of each volume (January–February). Persons interested in submitting manuscripts to the Reviews are advised to consult both the Statement and the Instructions. Copies of both may be obtained by writing to the Editorial Office, Reviews of Infectious Diseases, Channing Laboratory, 180 Longwood Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts 02115.

Additional editorial assistance from the following is gratefully acknowledged: Adam Hunter Balin, Nancy Cadmus, Anne Lacy, and Julie McCoy.